Image 1 Copy: A Foundation of Faith

Caption: We would submit to you that there is nothing more important than your relationship with God. This relationship impacts your everyday life as well as the lives of your kids. As you step into a new season, make faith your foundation. Your relationship with God shapes not only your life but also your children's future.

Image 2 Copy: Living it Out

Caption: Our kids are always watching us, and so much of what they learn from us is from our example. Want to inspire faith in your kids? Start by living it out yourself. They're watching and learning from you every day.

Image 3 Copy: Normal and Natural

Caption: Make having conversations about faith a normal and natural part of life at home. Don't let faith conversations feel awkward. Talk about what God is doing in your life, and help your kids see Him at work in theirs.

Image 4 Copy: The Power of Community

Caption: God created us to be in community, so don't isolate yourself or your family as you seek to make faith a top priority in your life. Faith grows best in community. Surround yourself and your family with people who encourage, support, and challenge you spiritually.
